

BERLIN GOLDRUSH

Gold Leaf Art by Michael Taubenheim

AXEL Hotel Berlin

The Gold and metallic shining, floral and abstract themed images remind of the traditional Japanese Byōbu wall screens. Contrary to the Asian screens this work is exclusively created in a collage technique without any paint, brushes or liquid colours. The materials are metal leaf, palladium leaf, gold leaf and a special color dyed, hand-made silver leaf from Japan which is originally used for the manufacturing of Kimonos and Nishijin Brocade.

BERLIN GOLDRUSH

Gold Leaf Art by Michael Taubenheim

21.2.2010 bis 30.4.2010

Opening 21.2.2010, 6.00 pm

www.taubenheim.de

AXEL Hotel

Lietzenburger Straße, 13/15

10789 Schöneberg, Berlin

www.axelhotels.com

Michael@Taubenheim.de

Tel. 0151/ 588 366 00

In the 1990's Michael Taubenheim became well known as photographer. Amongst other projects he photographed the nationwide advertising campaigns for the German AIDS Foundation (DAH). Recently he dedicates all his creativity into his gilding art work.

